

Presentations given by Andrew Sullivan

Connecting Family to Liberty – A personal journey into doing family research, this presentation is designed to inspire people to investigate their family history, as well as setting aside common prejudices people have about their own ancestors. Philadelphia, a bell, and a quilt are in this presentation. (20-25 minutes, with plenty of Q&A to assist)

About the Speaker

Andrew L. Sullivan is an active member of the Nebraska SAR and Omaha Chapter and assists with publicity. He holds a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Creighton University and has over 30 years of internet experience in the hospitality industry. He is a pundit, a mechanical clock enthusiast, and a Monty Python and Star Wars fan.